SALT LAKE CITY

formance will be a novel and pleasing one. The affairs will be the leading society event of July.

Oakwood, the beautiful country home of Colonel and Mrs. E. F. Holmes, was the scene of a delightful out-door affair on Tuesday afternoon, when hundreds of ladies motored from town to be the guests of Mrs. Holmes.

The porches and grounds were beautifully arranged for the affair, and during the afternoon the Troubadours furnished delightful music.

Mrs. Holmes received on the rustic bridge over the stream that puris through the estate, and assisting her in providing for the enjoyment of the guests were a number of the younger married ladies, together with half a dozen of the girls of the younger set.

Oakwood is a beautiful spot for such an event and it will, undoubtedly, be the scene of a number of similar affairs during the summer.

Mr and Mrs. Frank Knox and De Witt Knox have returned from the east and will spend the summer here. Mr. and Mrs. Knox went to New Haven to attend the graduating exercises of the class of 1911 of which young Knox was a prominent member, and following this several of the eastern cities were visited.

Mrs. J. E. Bamberger and Miss Dorothy Bam-berger have spent the past ten days here visiting friends and relatives. They will remain a day or two longer and are at the Hotel Utah.

Mrs. Bamberger and Miss Bamberger will leave for New York during the coming week and later in the month will sail either on the Adriatic or Lusitania and will spend the summer abroad.

They have been welcomed home by their many old friends who are always delighted to see them.
Miss Bamberger, who has not been here for some time, has grown to be a stunning young lady and has apparently inherited her mother's charm and wit.

Captain and Mrs. Sidney Cloman are due to arrive here at any time, having spent the past week in Spokane and other cities of the northwest. They will probably visit here several days and in that event will be variously entertained by the friends of Mrs. Cloman as well as those who knew the Captain in San Francisco before his marriage, and in London when he was the military attache of the American legation.

Mrs. Cloman was the leader of society here preceding her marriage to Captain Cloman and she will be heartily greeted by those who have missed her during the years she has been away.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Glendinning have returned from a trip to Honolulu after a visit of a month in the islands, where they met a large number of Salt Lakers and were lavishly entertained by them. Mr. and Mrs. Glendinning will spend the remainder of the summer in Salt Lake.

Among those who have returned to their homes here during the present week, after a winter at school in the east, are Miss Margaret Dunn, Miss Margaret Walker and Miss Norinne Thompson.

So many of the younger girls graduated this year that the debutantes of next season will make a longer list than ever before, and their beauty and popularity will add greatly to the gayety of 1911-12.

One of the most beautiful girls in the younger set is Miss Margaret McClure, who returned a fortnight ago and whose appearance at the tea given by Mrs. Holmes was the subject of an unusual amount of pleasant comment.

The wedding of Miss Helen Boes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Boes, and Lieut. Charles
